Dean, all of whom live in Dueschene.

The following appeared a few days ago in the New York Times and concerns a formerly Kansas girl, the daughter of the late James H. Canfield, at one time member of the faculty of Kansas University.

"Dorothy Canfield Fisher, whose new book, 'Understood Betsy,' a story for young folks from nine to nineteen, will be published on August 16, has been doing war work in Paris for more than a year. She has been assisting Miss Winifred Holt's work for soldiers blinded in battle in which she has had charge of publishing a magazine and running a printing establishment to print it and also books in raised type. Her husband, John R. Fisher, is in charge of the French training camp for volunteers for the American Ambulance service. Mrs. Fisher recently had breakfast in Paris with an American soldier who had been her instructor in mathematics in her girlhood in Lawrence, Kan. He is now General John J. Pershing."

THERE'S A WOMAN IN OUR TOWN Who is trying to decide between two suitors. One of them is much more eligible in the eyes of the world, but the other is of that decidedly likable type. The odds are in favor of the poor man.

Among Topeka people who have recently been guests at the Y. W. C. A. "hostess house" at Fort Riley, where Miss Winifred Holt is hostess, are: Governor Capper, Mrs.

A Topeka man is trying to break his small son of the habit of calling to people whom he doesn't know as they pass the house. Not long ago the father heard his son, aged four, calling to a young lady on the other side of the street. Upon being corrected the son replied, "I know her."

"What is her name?" asked the doubtful father.

"Puddin' and Thyme," he answered and escaped punishment.

Mrs. Nannie V. Simmons of Chicago, known as the "Joy Philosopher," will arrive in Topeka, Thursday, and during her stay here will deliver a series of lectures.

She says "The joy philosophy is the Christ gospel made practical in daily life. Its fundamental principles require the realization of the aliveness of God and the absence of criticism and judgment of others. Each must keep his mental home sacred with thoughts that cheer, and bless and heal and purify, and have but one aim to make this earth a fairer, holier, place." Mrs. Simmons brings to her audience high inspiration and uplift.

There will be an all day meeting of the Military Sisterhood at Memorial hall Thursday.

MAXWELL

Most Miles per Gallon

Most Miles on tires

The Maxwell is mechanically right.

All the world knows that today.

Why?

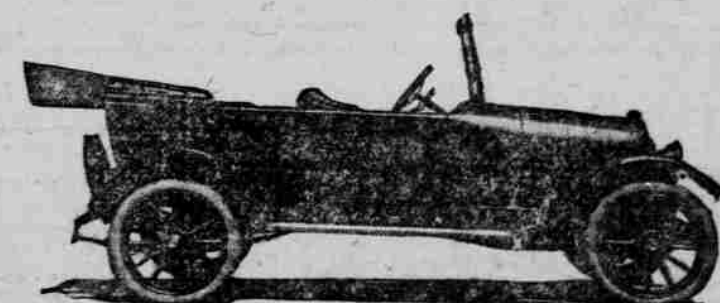

A Maxwell stock car went 22,022 miles without stopping the motor

—1092 Maxwells in our May gasoline economy contest averaged 27.15 miles on one gallon each.

2040 Maxwells in our June contest averaged 29.04 miles on one gallon each.

If the standardized, one model Maxwell were not mechanically right these achievements would have been impossible.

Isn't that the kind of efficiency—the kind of economy—you want in YOUR car?
